Conditions of licence:

1. This licence entitles the licensee (one person) and his/her research group to use the I-NoLLS program (Version 1.0) and share the source or executable code for academic or non-profit use within a research group. (Other users, such as a company or computing centre, should contact the authors to discuss licensing arrangements.)

No user will redistribute the source code or executable code to a third party in original or modified form without written permission of the authors.

2. Publications resulting from using this program will reference the article describing the program in Computer Physics Communications.

3. This licence does not allow any commercial (profit-making or proprietary) use or relicensing or redistributions. Persons interested in for-profit use should contact the authors directly.

4. Neither the authors nor the Universties of Durham and Aberdeen accept any responsibility for loss or damage arising from the use of I-NoLLS, its documentation or any associated communication.

Name and address of licensee (personal user or research group leader):

I agree to the conditions listed above for this licence and undertake to make my research group aware of the licence terms and accept responsiblity for ensuring adherence to these terms.
